Each line is required if applicable

This section of Performance Report involves providing information about the cash received and cash paid by your organisation in the past financial year, by grouping transactions based on the categories as provided. You are not required to provide information for all categories as provided for in the template, only those categories that are applicable to your organisation.

OK

As the objective of the statement of cash received and cash paid is to explain how cash in the bank account changed during the year, the closing balance in bank accounts for each year should equal the total of all the entity's bank accounts, term deposits, and cash on hand at your organisation's balance date.
